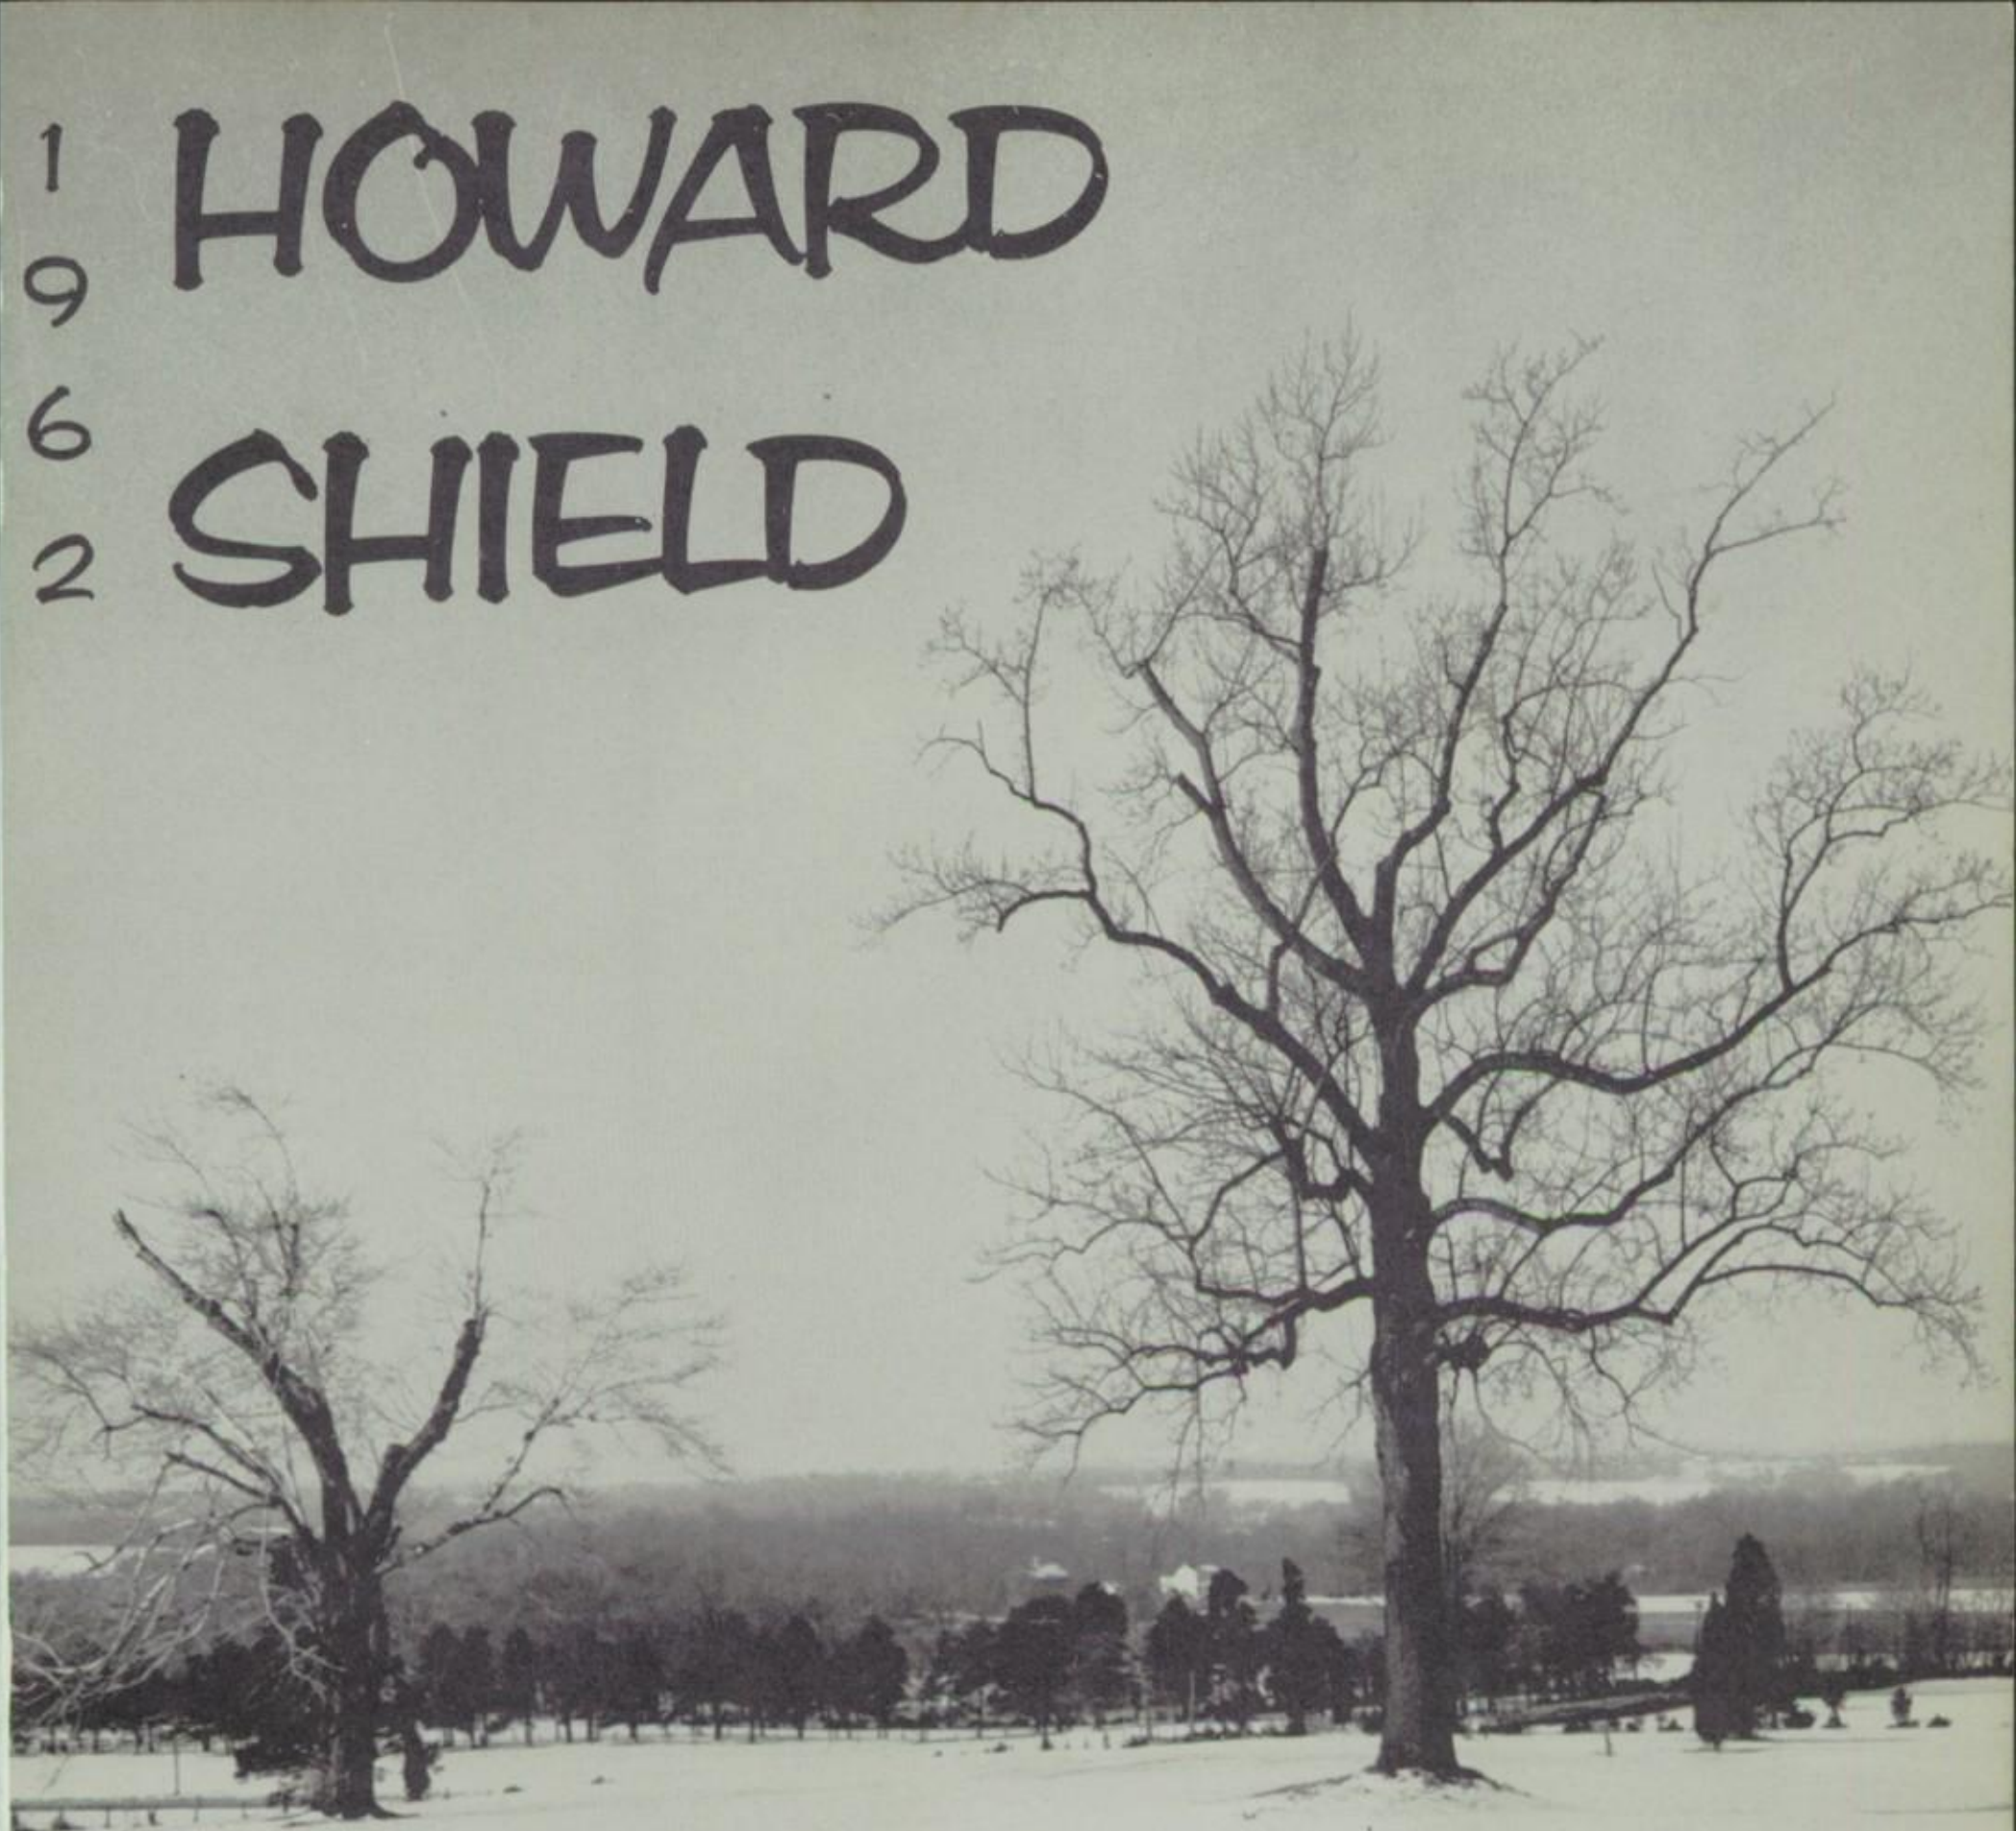
1962 HOWARD SHIELD



EDITORS' MESSAGE

Looking down from the hill on which Howard stands, we can see the rolling countryside of Howard County. These familiar scenes will be only a part of the memories of our years at Howard. These years have prepared us well for the future, a future which means separation from the friends and activities which have been the source of many pleasant experiences.

With the help of Peanuts and his friends, we shall wander through Howard's familiar halls many times in the years to come. We hope the 1962 HOWARD SHIELD will be a lasting reminder of the happy years spent at Howard.

CLASS SONG

Howard High, we do sing of our love for thee
Thy spirit and honor uphold.
We will strive to obtain the true beauty, pure
Of the symbol of our yellow rose.
Remember the joys and guidance we've had
From parents, teachers, friends.
Walk on, walk on, with God by our side
And we'll never walk alone.

Now we think through the past and the years
we've spent
Achieving this step to success.
A fine life is a thought conceived in youth
And sincere in the years that will be.
Our class '62 will stay ever true
And our dreams will lead us on;
Look up, look up, with faith in our hearts
And we'll never stand alone;
We'll never stand alone.

MOTTO

A fine life is a thought conceived in youth and realized in maturity.

LION'S TALE STAFF

Judy Simering, Editor, looks over a back issue of the LION'S TALE.

Carole Roemer, Assistant Editor, types copy for the next edition of the paper.

Donnadine Dasher, Sports Editor, and Candy Kiersarsky, Art Editor, check over a copy ready to be sent in.

Diane McCurdy, Circulation Manager, and Nancy Basil, Business Manager, keep account of the subscribers and the finances.

Deadlines to meet, pictures to take, a constant state of confusion—this is the journalism class in room #31 every sixth period.

The primary concern of the yearbook staff is to produce a yearbook which covers a year's events. The newspaper staff publishes the monthly LION'S TALE and has learned the art of newspaper writing.

HOWARD SHIELD STAFF

The formation of the yearbook is a year around process which takes many feverish hours out of class to produce.

The advisor, Mrs. Nell Samuelson, the photographer, Mr. J. Daniel Englar, and the Taylor Company Representative, Mr. Henry Wittich, can be given much credit for the assistance they gave.

WELCOME DANCE

The Welcome Dance, held in early September, was the first dance of the school year and was sponsored by the Student Council. This dance gives the sophomores, as well as the upperclassmen, an opportunity to become acquainted with each other, and provided a pleasant way to start the year.

ANNIVERSARY DANCE

The Anniversary Dance, celebrating Howard High's tenth birthday, was held in the gym on November 10. A frothy blue and white birthday cake decorated the front of the stage, and silver letters spelling "Anniversary Dance" glittered on the curtains.

Dianne Elder, as winner of the spot dance, was presented with a small cake, a replica of the center decoration.

SNOW BALL

The music of the Smoothies provided a beautiful atmosphere for the annual Snow Ball sponsored by the FNA. A pyramid of white streamers and snowflakes made a perfect setting for the dancers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones spend an enjoyable evening at the Snow Ball.

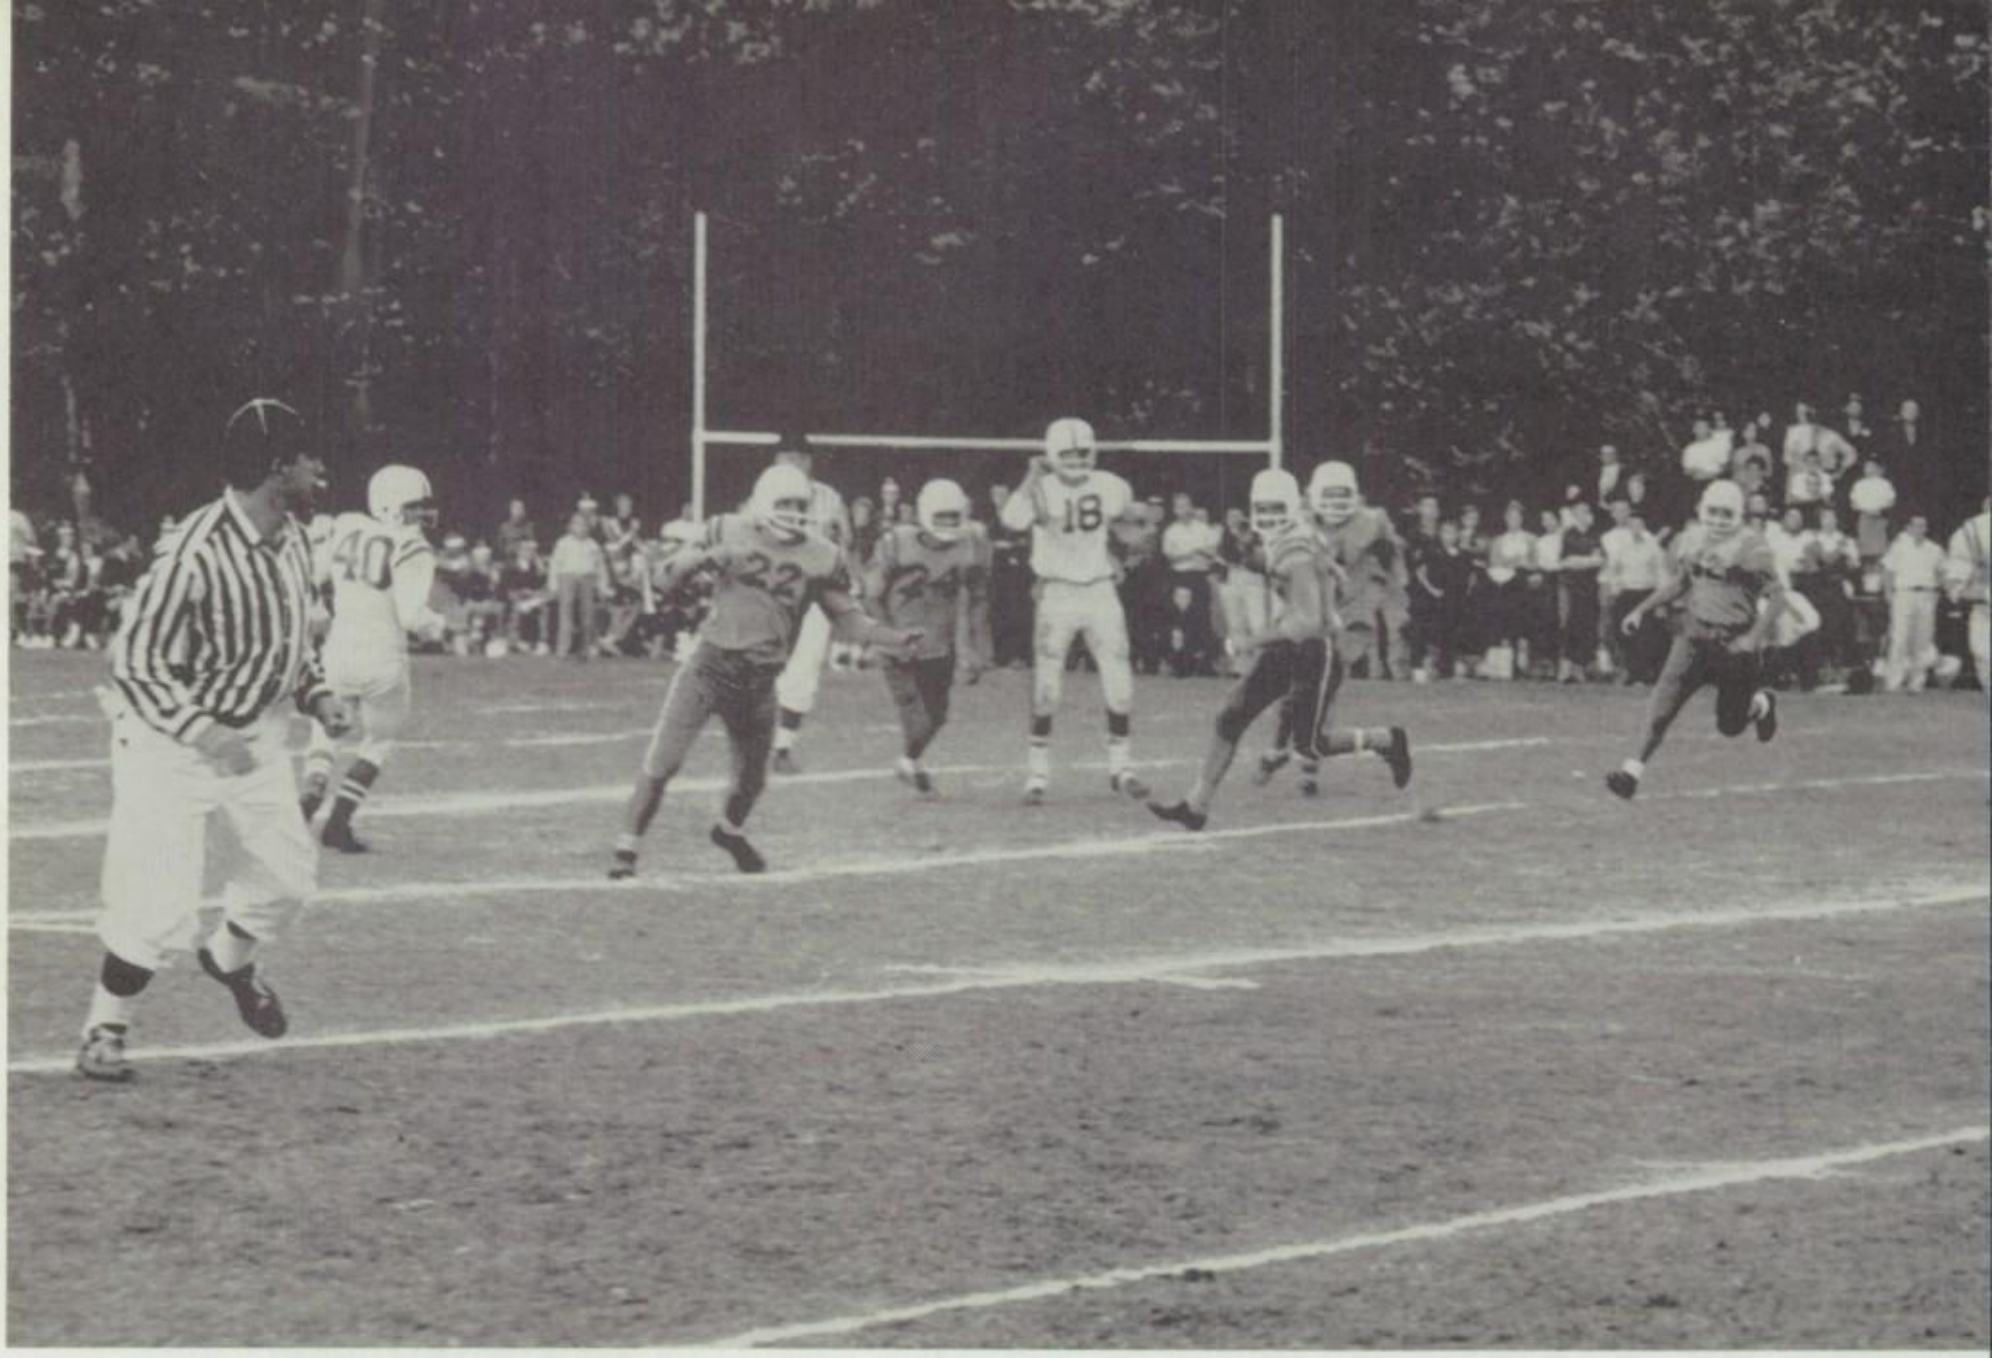
Steph, Denny, Bruce, and Bonne seem to enjoy the music of the Smoothies.

APRIL SHOWERS DANCE

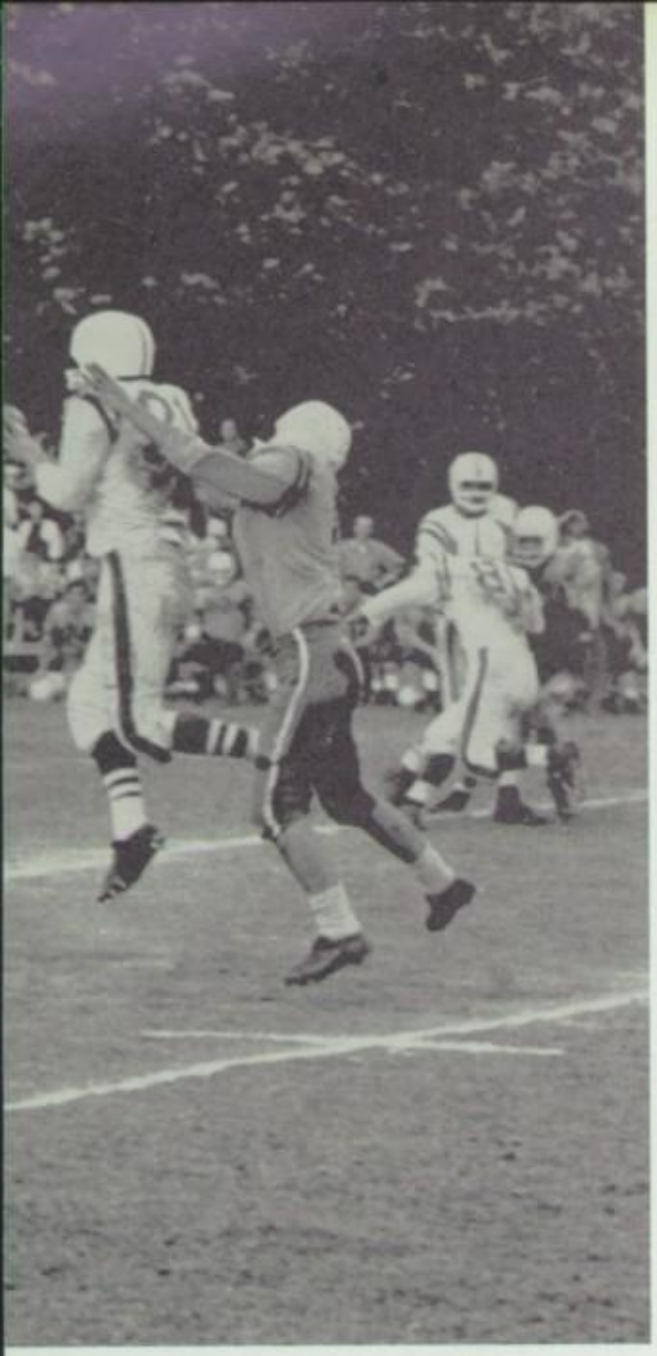
The Sophisticats provided the music for the April Showers Dance.

A spring setting and good music by the Sophisticats presented a pleasant evening for all who attended the April Showers Dance sponsored by the Music Department.

Smooth music was enjoyed by many during the evening.



HOMECOMING



The 1961 Homecoming, marked by football, chrysanthemums, turkey, dancing, laughter, and tears was certainly a day to remember.

Although the game against Glenelg ended in defeat, spirits were not dampened.

Cheerleaders, majorettes, performing bands, various clubs displaying their banners, and the presenting of the Homecoming Queen, Barbara Marshall, highlighted the half-time activities. A turkey dinner was served in the cafeteria from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. The dance was held in the gaily decorated gym where the queen and her court were again presented.

Homecoming Queen Barbara Marshall was presented at half-time by Linda Ingram, 1960 Homecoming Queen.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

"A Touch of Gold" and music by the Furys provided a beautiful atmosphere for the Senior Christmas Dance, held on December 22. Under a ceiling of white stood an enormous snow-covered tree, decorated with gold ornaments, and a sparkling white and gold wreath adorned the stage.

Don Callender and Barbara Hazel were crowned King and Queen of the Christmas Dance. Their court included: Beth Blumenfeld, Richard Keim, Donnadine Dasher, Clarence Creamer, Bonne Oursler, Denny Prochaska, Mary Ann Lubinski, Dave Lubinski, Kathy Sykes, and Andy Young.

Amid a maze of cupids and hearts, the class of '63 presented the annual Valentine Dance on February 16.

Crowned King and Queen were John Pickett and Diane Watkins. They were attended by representatives of the Junior Class.

John Pickett and Diane Watkins were elected King and Queen of the Valentine Dance.

Time out for refreshments for those who attended the Junior Valentine Dance. Serving as waiter is Mr. Joseph Mitchell.

The Sophomore Class gave the cafeteria a festive look of spring, as they held their annual party on May 4. Baskets of flowers and bright colored streamers presented a gay atmosphere for the dancers.

SOPHOMORE PARTY

The twist is popular among the dancers.

A time to rest!

Dancers enjoy the music of the Hi-Fi.

As other members of the family look on in consternation, Diane, as Rose, pleads with her father, portrayed by Joe Carr, not to move from St. Louis.

"Meet Me in St. Louis" was given by the second year dramatics class as the annual spring presentation. It starred Joe Carr, Fran Mills, Diane McCurdy, Barb Altvater, Faye Vest, and Jacki Bregel. Weeks of preparation were well-rewarded by an enthusiastic audience.

Due to the increased interest in dramatics, the course was made up of two classes for the first time, both under the direction of Mrs. Corbin.

The first year class, composed solely of sophomores, presented a one act play for a school assembly.

Gil Miller's attire rates questionable looks from the family in the first year dramatics class play, "Ruffles and Roller Skates."

DRAMATICS

Mr. and Mrs. Corbin receive a cut glass salad bowl with matching silver fork and spoon, a gift from the second year dramatics class.

Faye, as Agnes, sings a "shocking song" and her mother, Fran, reprimands her.

VARIETY SHOW

One of the highlights of the year was the annual Variety Show, presented by the combined efforts of the Future Nurses and the Music Department, February 28. Revealed talent ranged from serious to amusing acts.

Linda Liebman, president of the Future Nurses, was mistress of ceremonies.

HOWARD COUNTY NIGHT

"Howard County Night" at Laurel Raceway for the benefit of improving the athletic field was a rousing success!

The combined efforts of Chairman Bob Story and the students of Howard High certainly paid off.

More than one thousand Howard Countians turned out for the occasion.

Mr. H. J. Bauman, father of sophomore Bonnie Bauman, was the proud owner of "Jingo Hanover," which captured first place in the sixth race.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council worked busily this year sponsoring Homecoming and the Welcome Dance, taking charge of Orientation, boosting cafeteria participation, sending Easter Plates, filling Christmas stockings, and supervising the clothing drive.

Among their many accomplishments, the Student Council helped to finance Lynn Matthews' trip to the National Student Council Convention in California.

Mr. Mitchell, Junior Class advisor, gets a wet reward for his untiring efforts.

One hundred twenty combined voices of the Mixed Chorus, under the excellent direction of Miss Eleanor Dries, performed at various school and community functions.

The Chorus was very active this year, as they entertained at the Christmas program, performed at various assemblies, and participated in the Howard County Concert.

BASKETBALL

The cheerleaders are a very important part of the sports program at Howard. Besides leading cheers, the girls lend pep and enthusiasm to the games and pep rallies. They present skits, songs, stunts, and cheers to create more spirit among the students and to encourage them to attend games.

The Howard cheerleaders took top honors in 1962 in the nation-wide contest sponsored by THE MEGAPHONE, the newspaper published by the National Cheerleaders' Association. They received as first place prize a twenty-five dollar check and a year's subscription to THE MEGAPHONE. Schools throughout the United States competed in the contest, and winners were selected on the basis of skits, cheers, songs, pictures, and activities submitted by the cheerleaders.

Having only three players return from last year's varsity squad, the Lionesses worked hard to come out of their season on the winning side. Eleven of the opposition bowed to the Howard girls, while the Lionesses were trimmed only twice. One of the losses was to the powerful alumnae team and the other to Seton High by only one point.

The team combined skill, determination, and teamwork as it was led through the season by Co-Captains Carole Woodall and Dona Duncan. Carole was also selected as the most valuable player. Martha Godshall and Judy Bowman were runners-up for the honor.

The junior varsity team compiled an excellent 13-0 record for the season. For three consecutive years the Little Lionesses have remained unbeaten.

BALL

Coach Robert Marshall with the assistance of Mr. Joseph Mitchell, led the Lions through a progressive year.

Andy Young and Mike Williams, co-captains of the Lion squad, were the only returning varsity lettermen. This lack of experience necessitated that '62 be a rebuilding year. Though losses plagued the first part of the year, the determination of the team was evident. Because of long hard practice, skill and experience came. During the latter part of the season, the Lions exhibited their fine teamwork in a soaring defeat of Northwood, the Prince George's County power, and two rampaging victories over the Gladiators from Glenelg.

SOFTBALL

The powerful hitting and good fielding of the Varsity Softball team carried it through seven dynamic wins while it dropped three contests. Most of the wins showed Howard scoring in double figures and by the end of the season over 300 runs had been pushed across the plate.

Few players will be lost via graduation, so the future seems bright for the skilled and experienced Lionesses Nine.

Competently coaching the team was Miss Betty Lang. Miss Judy Tye assisted her with the duties. Jeanne Quinlan and Carole Woodall were selected as co-captains.

TRACK

Troy goes over!

Although the track team's record does not appear to be outstanding, many steps have been taken to increase the skill and experience of those returning track lettermen. Few seniors will be lost by graduation, and the future seems bright for the team.

Highlighting the year was the Class A District Finals at Frederick. Troy Trent captured first place with a jump of 10' 9". Clarence Creamer took second and Charlie Jeffra fourth.

Mr. Quinlan deserves a great deal of credit for the fine job he did of coaching the boys through the season.

BASEBALL

Coach Allie Corbin spurred the Howard Nine to one of its most successful campaigns in recent years. Closing out with an impressive eight wins and only six losses, the Lions succeeded in downing Glenelg in two out of three contests to retain possession of Elgard. The final game of the '62 season will long remain in the memories of the players, coaches, and spectators. A spectacular no-hit, shut-out pitching performance by senior Doug Miller coupled with tight fielding and timely hitting produced a soaring 12-0 defeat of the Gladiators.

Mr. Joseph Mitchell assisted Mr. Corbin with the coaching duties. Jack Messner and Skip Mercier served as field captains.

FIELD

Field Day was a huge success! The weather was perfect and the events were highly competitive and exciting. The final tally showed the Class of '62 on top with 144 points. However, the juniors trailed the winners by only seven and a half points. The Sophomore Class accumulated eighty-three and a half points.

An extra attraction to the day's program was the Greased Pig Contest, which was sponsored by the F.F.A. Mary Barker and Troy Trent were the winners of the cash prizes.

A great many students participated in the varied events and exhibited their skills and sportsmanship to aid their class.

JUNIOR-SENIOR

On June 1, the Juniors bade "Bon Voyage" to the Class of '62 at the Junior-Senior Prom. The seniors seemingly danced in the ballroom of an ocean liner to the music of the Meguel Vega Orchestra, set in a giant seashell on the stage. Tables surrounded the dance floor where the court entered. Denny Prochaska and Donnadine Dasher, crowned King and Queen of the Junior-Senior Prom, led the dancing, followed by the 22 members of the court.

Refreshments were served by ship stewardesses in the cafeteria. The evening ended with Jerry Greenstreet singing "The Party's Over" as a cloudburst of balloons showered the prom guests.

Class Night, held again at the Peter Pan Inn in Frederick, will long remain a fond memory.

Each senior was presented a key chain as he entered the dining room.

Mr. Jones began the evening by giving the blessing, which was followed by a delicious meal.

After the dinner Andy Young, Senior Class President, welcomed the seniors, faculty, and guests, and presented the senior advisors with gifts.

Members of the prophecy committee then presented the humorous Senior Class prophecy of Jonestown twenty years from now on the ocean floor. While the floor was being cleared for dancing, seniors and their dates leisurely strolled through the picturesque gardens.

Martha Godshall reads the prophecy as Jeanne Quinlan, Donnadine Dasher, Judy Simering and Sue Smull, members of the committee, wait to read.

Seniors and their dates listen to the reading of the prophecy.

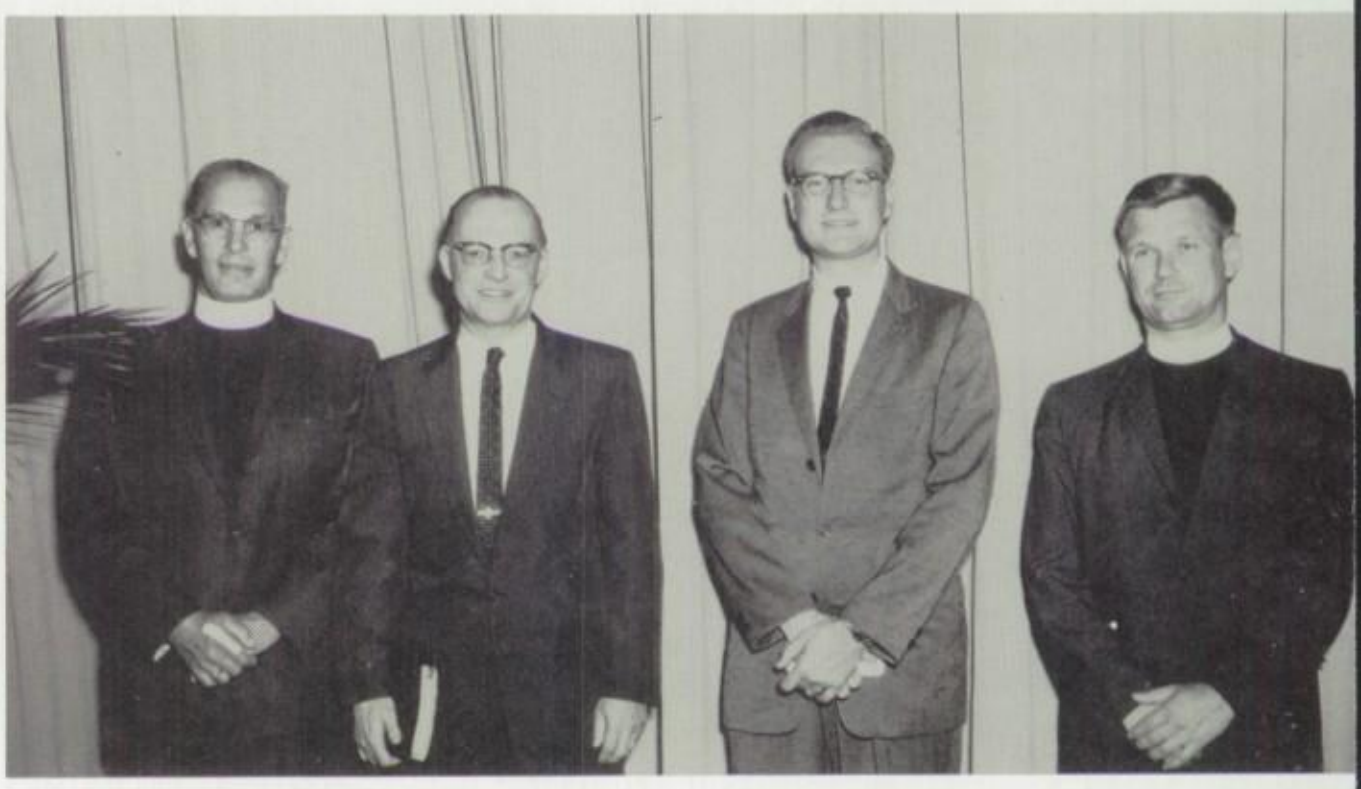
BACCALAUREATE

Seniors leave the gym after the Baccalaureate Service.

On June 10, 1962, two hundred and seven seniors entered the gym to mark the tenth annual Baccalaureate Service at Howard High.

The service began with the Invocation by The Reverend E. Albert Rich, followed by the choir singing "God of Our Fathers." After the Scripture reading by The Reverend John J. Dawson, the sermon was delivered by The Reverend Clayton W. Crooks. The second selection of the choir, "Walk Hand in Hand," was followed by the Benediction, given by The Reverend Alvin F. Burns.



Standing, l. to r., are The Reverend Alvin F. Burns, The Reverend Clayton W. Crooks, The Reverend John J. Dawson, and The Reverend E. Albert Rich, who participated in the service.

The chorus group, composed of future seniors, made an impressive appearance in their black choir robes.

Marilyn Young, one of the two top-ranking seniors, gave the Welcome Address.

Doctor Richard Zdanis, a 1953 graduate of Howard High, presented the graduation address to the seniors.

Linda Musgrove, who tied with Marilyn for top scholastic honors, gave the Farewell Address.

Seniors march into the gym for the last time.

The graduation exercises on Thursday evening, June 14, began with the Invocation by Walter A. Shank. After the Welcome Address by Marilyn Young, the 1962 graduates sang their class song.

Doctor Richard Zdanis, Associate Professor of Physics at Princeton University, spoke to the graduates. Doctor Zdanis was Valedictorian of the 1953 graduating class at Howard.

John E. Yingling, Sr., Superintendent of Howard County Schools, awarded two hundred and seven diplomas to the class of 1962. After the presentation of diplomas, the members of the Howard County Board of Education were introduced by Mr. Yingling. This was the first time the entire Board of Education had been present at a Howard graduation.

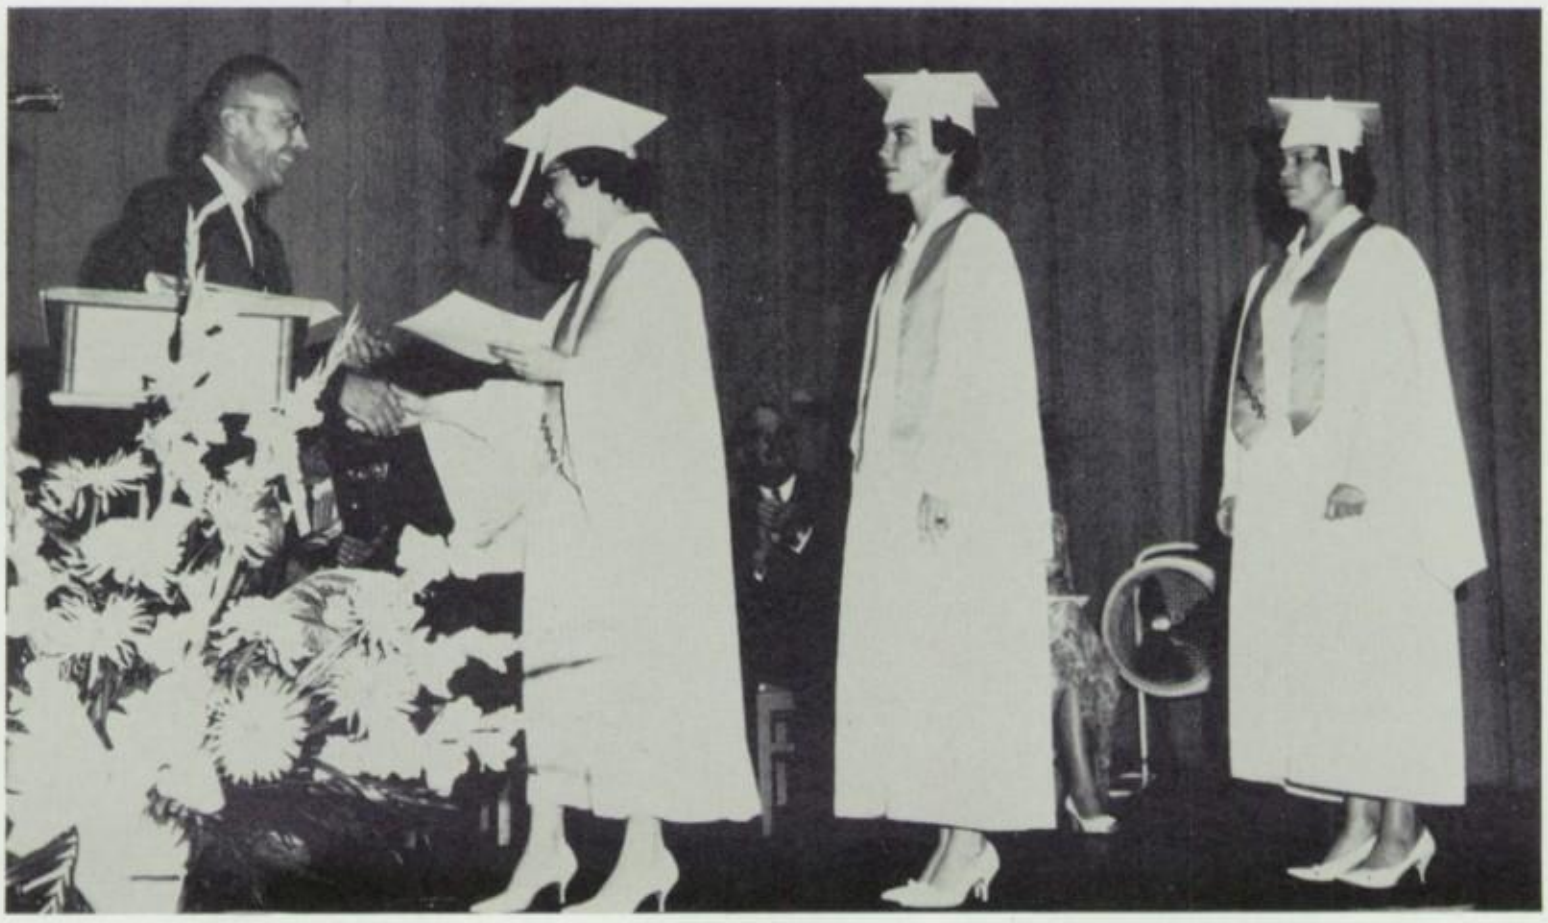
GRADUATION 1962

Mr. Yingling speaks to the graduates.

Mr. Omar J. Jones presented twenty-one awards to deserving seniors, after which Linda Musgrove gave the Farewell Address. The entire senior class then stood for their last singing of the Alma Mater, which brought tears to many.

Following the Benediction, the seniors began the Recessional.

Mr. Jones presents Linda Liebman with one of her three awards.



Marilyn Young, Sherrie Jackson, and Barbara Marshall receive awards for top scores on the General Educational Development Test.

NEW YORK TRIP

Times Square, Radio City Music Hall, the Empire State Building, out-of-the-way coffee-houses, Greenwich Village, the Peppermint Lounge, a boat trip around Manhattan Island—all these helped to make a memorable New York trip for the seniors.

Three buses loaded with excited seniors left the Ellicott City parking lot at 7:00 a.m. Saturday morning, April 14, for the week-end trip to New York City. After a boat trip around Manhattan Island, they checked in at the Hotel Claridge, just off Times Square.

Dickie seems interested in something!

The Statue of Liberty made an impressive sight from the boat.

. . . you have trouble standing up on the boat!

The rest of the week-end was spent roaming around the city, trying out the subways and the carriages in Central Park, seeing Broadway plays, or just plain sight-seeing. At 5:00 Sunday evening, they met the buses and began the long trip home. At approximately 10:00, a tired, but happy, group of seniors from the class of 1962 returned home.

Smile, you're on Candid Camera!

BEAUTY

Is More Than Skin Deep

Yes beauty is more than skin deep because real beauty means pep . . . vigor . . . a youthful feeling and appearance. In short, beauty depends on good health and good health depends on good food.

Feel good . . . look good . . . stay healthy, through proper eating. Look to frozen foods for BEAUTY that is more than skin deep.
